

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Struggle For Political Supremacy In All Parts of the Country.

CONFLICTING CLAIMS ON THE RESULT.

Ohio Campaign Is of Unusual Interest — Many Legislators Being Chosen to Elect Senators.

Cincinnati, Nov. 3.—Although the Ohio election is for minor state officers only and congressmen, the result is anxiously awaited on account of its bearing on the future of Senator Hanna and Mayor Johnson of Cleveland. Johnson controlled the Democratic state convention and Hanna the Republican. In the campaign Hanna has solid support, while Johnson was opposed by leading Democrats. With confidence on one side and indifference on the other and personal preferences paramount on both sides, a light vote is predicted, with odds in favor of the Republicans. The legislature, elected next November chooses Hanna's successor. If the Democrats win or materially reduce the Republican plurality of 67,467 last year, it is conceded that Johnson will become a formidable candidate for 1904, as well as for Hanna's place. In such event the campaign in Ohio next year would be without precedent and on that contingency all interest in the present contest centers.

Intense feeling developed among prominent Democratic workers who are McLean men because none of the funds collected by the Democratic candidates, who are Johnson men, had been turned over to the Hamilton county committee. The organization has been ignored by both the state and local Democratic candidates and the indications are that there will be trouble at the polls.

Both Claim N. Y.

New York, Nov. 3.—Leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties express confidence of victory in the Empire state. Predictions vary from 16,000 to 50,000 on each side, though the estimates of the two state chairmen, Frank Campbell for the Democrats and Colonel Dunn for the Republicans, are almost exactly the same, the former claiming 35,000 for Coler and the latter 37,600 for Odell. Both of these men assert that their predictions are based on a most thorough examination of the situation throughout the state and are very conservative. Word came from Governor Odell at Newburgh, where he will remain to receive the returns that he still estimated his majority at 40,000, and Mr. Coler said that he expected to win by 60,000. Mr. Coler told his managers that Chairman Campbell's figures were far too modest.

In Connecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—Confidence that the election would result in the election of Republican state and congressional tickets by substantial pluralities is expressed by the leaders of that party. At the Democratic state headquarters, however, Chairman Walsh declared himself hopeful of the success of the Democratic state tickets and the election of four of the congressmen. All factional differences had been harmonized, he said, and reports from all sections of the state were most encouraging.

Gas Addicks May Lose.

Dover, Del., Nov. 3.—Extraordinary precautions have been taken throughout Delaware to prevent the molestation of the ballot boxes used in the election, the impression prevailing that previous attempts at riotous disturbance will be repeated. The Democrats and regular Republican leaders claim that J. Edward Addicks and his Union Republican followers will be overwhelmingly defeated and that Addicks will have less than half of his former strength in the legislature when he succeeded in effecting a deadlock and prevented the election of United States senators.

Reduce Republican Majority.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Indications point to the election of Samuel W. Pennypacker, the Republican candidate for governor by a reduced majority. Robert L. Pattison, the Democratic candidate has twice carried the state for governor, but each time there were strong defections in the Republican ranks. Chairman Quay of the Republican state committee, estimates Pennypacker's plurality at 100,000, while Chairman Creasy of the Democratic committee, states that Pattison will be victorious.

In Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 3.—The sole interest in the election in Georgia seems to center in the size of the Democrat vote in the various congressional districts, as there is little opposition to the Democratic candidates for congress in any of the 11 Georgia districts. No state officers are to be elected, a governor and state officials having been chosen in October.

Illinois Congressional Fight.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Illinois will elect a state treasurer and other minor state officers and congressmen. Both parties have made a very active campaign, but the Democrats have devoted particular attention to the close congressional districts. The state delegation in the present congress is evenly divided, 11 Republicans and 11 Democrats. Under the new apportionment there will be 25 congressmen this year. The Republicans claim that they will elect at least 16, if not 18, while the Democrats believe they are sure of 12, if not more. There are 10 districts now in Chicago, and in three of them the Republicans have made no nominations. Both parties claim they will have a majority for the state ticket, but the Republicans seem to be the most confident, giving their figures as 50,000.

Democrats Claim California.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The leaders of both political parties are claiming the victory at the polls is in sight. Chairman Cutter, of the Republican state central committee, estimates that the majority for Dr. Pardee, Republican candidate for governor in the counties outside of San Francisco will be 14,200. He does not admit that S. K. Lane, the Democratic candidate for governor, will receive a majority here. On the other hand, Mr. Lane has given out a forecast of the result which places his prospective majority in San Francisco at 15,000, and in the entire state, this city inclusive, at 17,365.

Claims of Hoosier Leaders.

Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—Neither party was able to create much interest in the campaign in Indiana. James P. Goodrich, chairman of the Republican state committee, declares the Republicans will elect the state ticket by 20,000 plurality, name nine and possibly 10 of the 13 members of congress and control the legislature. William F. O'Brien the Democratic state chairman, says every indication points to a Democratic victory. He says the Democrats will have the legislature and will choose a successor to Charles W. Fairbanks as United States senator.

West Virginia Claims.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The Republican managers claim Dovenor will be returned to congress from the First district with an increased majority over that of 1898 and 1900. In the Second district Hon. John T. McGraw, the Democratic candidate, has made a strong campaign and his managers feel that Mr. Dayton, the Republican candidate for re-election, if elected, will have a close call. In the Third district, Miller, the Democrat, has been making a hot fight against Gaines, the Republican. The Fourth and Fifth congressional districts are claimed by both sides.

Michigan Republicans Confident.

Detroit, Nov. 3.—The voters of Michigan will elect state officers, a new legislature, which will elect the successor to the late Senator James McMillan, 12 congressmen and county officers throughout the state. They will also pass on constitutional amendment providing for indeterminate sentences for convicted criminals. Republicans are confident of the success of their entire state, legislative and congressional tickets, while the Democrats are predicting the election of their candidate for governor, I. T. Durand and at least three congressmen.

Expect Republican Legislature.

Milwaukee, Nov. 3.—Managers of the various political parties are busy getting a full vote. The climax of the campaign came when Governor La Follette made his final effort at Waukesha and Mayor Rose addressed a gathering at the exposition building in this city. Both sides claim to be confident of success. The betting, however, is decidedly in favor of the Republican ticket. Republicans will probably elect eight congressmen, the Democrats one, with two doubtful. The legislature will undoubtedly be Republican.

Will Break Even.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—Nebraska is electing a state ticket and six congressmen. On the former neither the Republicans nor the Fusionists are making strong claims and the result of the fight between J. B. Mickey, Republican, and W. H. Thompson, Fusionist, is admittedly doubtful, although the chairmen of both parties claim victory. The prevailing opinion is that the opposing parties will break even in the congressional elections.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Frank Sweet, 57, whose home is at Cleveland, ended his life by firing a bullet into his left temple while standing on the street. Sweet was supposedly insane.

PLEASED WITH TRIP.

President Completes His Outing in the Virginia Woods.

RETURNS HOME TO CAST HIS BALLOT.

Speaks Earnestly of the Blue and Gray When Leaving the Battlefields of the Civil War.

Brandy, Va., Nov. 3.—The special train bearing President Roosevelt and party left here for Washington. The party arrived at the train in carriages from the home of Representative Rixey. The president is in excellent health and spirits, having enjoyed his outing greatly. On the station platform, after his arrival, the president held an informal reception, many of the residents of Brandy and vicinity embracing the opportunity to meet and shake hands with him. Just before the special train pulled out President Roosevelt stepped upon the rear platform of his car and in response to the hand clapping from the crowd thanked the people for their greeting.

At Remington, in response to demands of a small concourse of people, the president speaking from the rear platform, said: "I want to say what a very great pleasure it has been to us to be here and to see your beautiful country and to be received everywhere with characteristic Virginia hospitality. I had the good fortune to visit two or three of your battlefields, the first and second battles of Manassas and Cedar Mountain, and to be shown over them by men who had worn the blue and the men who had worn the gray. We are all alike now, and can all glory alike in the valor of each side and the devotion to duty as each side saw its duty."

Going Home to Vote.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt and party left here on a special train for Oyster Bay, where the president will vote. The only members of the party besides the president were Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Loeb, Dr. Lung, the president's physician, and four secret service men. These occupied the train which consisted of two cars. Although there was abundance of space to accommodate others, the representatives of the press associations who have almost invariably accompanied the presidential party in the past were refused admission on the train. The president's special from Brandy, Va., arrived here over the Southern railway a few minutes behind its schedule. It was backed into the depot and the president immediately came out on the platform and doffed his hat to the crowd which had gathered. He spent some time shaking hands with old friends and expressing his satisfaction with the brief trip into Virginia. "I have had a great time, he said. "It was splendid sport. I did not shoot anything, to be sure, but it was the outing that I wanted. That was all I was after any way, and I got it. I enjoyed it immensely."

INCREASED FOREST RESERVES.

Land Officer Receives an Interesting and Profitable Report.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The annual report of Binge Herman, commissioner of the general land office, shows that the public land disposed of by the government during the year aggregated 19,488,535 acres, an increase of 3,925,738 acres over the previous year. Of the aggregate 1,757,793 acre were sold for cash; 17,614,792 acres were embraced in miscellaneous entries and the remainder was in Indian lands. Commissioner Hermann recommends a large appropriation specifically for surveys in Alaska, legislation regarding railroad rights of way granted under existing laws so that parties who have expended large sums of money for power plants, etc., shall be protected against subsequent settlers and a larger appropriation to provide for an increased number of special agents to prevent timber depredations and to protect public lands from unlawful entry.

On Oct. 1, last, there were 54 forest reserves, embracing 60,175,765 acres, an increase of almost 14,000,000 acres since the last report. During the fiscal year there were 1,663 forest fires discovered, which burned over 87,799 acres. The constantly decreasing area burned over is said to demonstrate the efficiency of government forestry forces.

Three in Doubt.

Louisville, Nov. 3.—A light vote is expected throughout the state, a lack of interest in the election being in evidence. The Democrats will in all probability elect seven congressmen by large majorities, while the Republicans are sure of one. Three districts are in doubt.

SIR THOMAS INTERESTED.

Will Give the St. Louis Exposition a Boost.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Major General Corbin has received a letter from Sir Thomas Lipton, in which the general is informed that Sir Thomas has greatly interested himself in the St. Louis exposition. He informs the general that he has had an interview with King Edward and that his majesty has indicated that he will name a special commission to attend the exposition and that the English government will take steps to interest the people in the exposition.

It is expected that the Prince of Wales will be named as the head of the special embassy. The matter already has become the subject of diplomatic correspondence between the British foreign office and Ambassador Choate who no doubt will communicate with Secretary Hay. Sir Thomas Lipton has represented to the king that the cordial relations between the United States and Great Britain will be strengthened if the United Kingdom is well represented at the coming exposition.

ROBBED AND MURDERED.

School Superintendent Attacked and Killed by Ladrone.

Manilla, Nov. 3.—D. C. Montgomery, superintendent of schools in Central Negros, was murdered by Ladrone, three miles from Bacolod. Mr. Montgomery was going to Bacolod for a consultation with the retiring superintendent and to assume control of the division. He had a large sum of money with him. Six natives armed with bolos and spears attacked the superintendent, quickly killed him and then mutilated and robbed him. The constabulary have offered a reward for Mr. Montgomery's murderers and it is thought they will be captured. Robbery is understood to have been the motive for the crime.

This is the first instance of a teacher in the Philippine islands being harmed while in discharge of his duty. Mr. Montgomery leaves a widow, who is a teacher in the island of Negros.

Given Ten Years.

London, Nov. 3.—The excitement over the reported flight of a peer to the continent was heightened by the announcement that a well known London society man, Bernard Frazer, had been sentenced at the Norwich assizes to 10 years penal servitude. With him was also sentenced Arthur Thorold, the son of a clergyman, connected, as is Frazer, with one of the oldest and proudest families in the United Kingdom. The prisoners were charged with carrying on a regular campaign to deprave the morals of youths all over the country.

Silversmiths Strike.

New York, Nov. 3.—About 300 silversmiths, all in the factory of the Whitman Manufacturing company, have struck, demanding a 9-hour instead of a 10-hour day. The chairman of the Brotherhood of Silversmiths which called out the men said that all the silversmiths in the city would soon be out, and strikers said that if the trouble is not settled, the employees of the Gorham Manufacturing company, in its factory at Providence, would be called out.

Indiana Promoter Dead.

New York, Nov. 3.—E. Y. Comstock of Summitville, Ind., was found dead in his room at a hotel, where he had been staying for the last three weeks. He was the promoter of a petroleum and oil burning device and it was in relation to that business that he was here. A physician said his death probably was due to apoplexy. He was about 50 years old.

Fell to His Death.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—John Finlan of Chicago, an iron worker employed on a new building, was killed by the fall of an iron girder. Finlan was being hoisted to the top of the building with the girder to the eighth floor, when the hoisting arm gave way. Finlan and the girder were dashed to the ground. Finlan was instantly killed.

Distinguished Pioneer Dead.

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 3.—Captain Welcome Hyde, a lineal descendant of Lord Hyde of England, and one of the last of Appleton's pioneer residents, died from old age and general debility. Captain Hyde was born in Milton, Vt., in 1824. He came to Wisconsin in 1848 and engaged in the lumber business.

Have Narrow Escape.

Cleveland, Nov. 3.—The big iron furnace of the River Furnace and Dock company blew up with terrific force. Although fully 125 men were at work near the furnace, no one was seriously injured. A number of men, however, sustained severe bruises and cuts.

New Jersey Situation.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 3.—The complexion of the congressional delegation from New Jersey will probably remain unchanged, eight Republicans and two Democrats.

MINERS' CASE FILED.

President Mitchell Has Submitted the Petition of the Miners.

BELIEVES A STRONG CASE IS MADE.

Objects to Sliding Scale and Calls For Demands of Former Convention — Commission's Tour.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 3.—The anthracite coal strike commission arrived in the Lehigh Valley region from Scranton. The commission spent the night and ate breakfast on their special train. The party was met at Pond Creek, about 12 miles north of here by District President Duffy of the United Mine Workers, who will represent the miners while the commission is in this region. The operators are represented by General Superintendent Warriner of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, and General Superintendent Richards, of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company. The program was extensive and covered the entire Hazleton region. The greater part of the territory was viewed from the special train. Upper Lehigh, Sandy Run, Highland, Freeland, Drifton and Jeddo, the latter place the home of John Markle, the individual operator were visited and the train was then run to Ebervale, Latimer, Milnesville and into Hazleton. A visit to one of the mines took up the early part of the day.

Recorder Wright announced that President Mitchell of the Miners' union had filed at Scranton, the statement of the miners' case. The stenographers made copies of it on the train and one copy was mailed from Hazleton to each company. The operators will make a reply in three or four days. Mr. Mitchell's statement will be made public by the commissioners. The statement practically reiterates the demands made at the Shamokin convention and does not favor the sliding scale advocated by President Baer of the Reading company. After breakfast the commissioners strolled about the vicinity while Superintendents Warriner and Richards tried to come to an agreement on which to visit. The miners wanted to go down the Harwood colliery of the C. Pardee company and the superintendents insisted on going to the No. 40 shaft of the Lehigh Valley company. Mr. Duffy claimed the Harwood mine was a typical operation of the Lehigh valley region. All but No. 40 of the 25 mines in the Hazleton territory, he said, are entered by means of slopes and as the commissioners had not yet gone into a mine by way of a slope he thought they should accept his suggestion.

The superintendents made the point that the Harwood colliery was not a typical mine and that it was nearly worked out. A compromise was finally agreed upon and the Audenreid colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company, owned by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, was selected. While in the town the commissioners were taken into the home of a miner, the first miner's house they had inspected. They were taken through all the rooms. Drifton was the next stop. At that place the commissioners met Captain Smith of Coxie Brothers and Co., an individual concern. The men at their mines are still on strike. The company insists on the men returning as individuals, but the miners have decided not to go to work unless they can go in a body. There is no prospect that the deadlock will soon be broken. A crowd of strikers gathered around the commissioners and the superintendents as they discussed the conditions existing at these collieries. The commissioners then went to Jeddo, where they were met by John Markle. The latter went with the commissioners to Ebervale and showed them that valley. He explained the strike at his operations and the party came into Hazleton and went to No. 40 colliery. The commissioners did not go into the mine.

Miners' Side Filed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 3.—All the mines in the Wyoming and Lackawanna regions are working with an increased force of men and the output of coal will be the largest since mining was resumed. A great many of the mines which operated with a limited force last week now have their full quota of miners at work. President Mitchell has completed his task of collecting statistics and other matters of information for the investigating commissioners. All the data Mr. Mitchell has collected is now in the hands of the recorder of the commission. Some additional information from the miners' side of the case have been sent to Carroll D. Wright. President Mitchell's legal advisers think a very strong case has been made out for the miners.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,
JAMES N. KEHOE,
 of Mason.
 For Judge of the Court of Appeals,
THOMAS H. PAYNTER, of Greenup.

Whoop 'em up, Democrats, until the last vote is in.

Don't put off voting until the last hour. Bear in mind the polls close at 4 p. m.

The only Republican speech made in this city during the campaign was made last night at the court house by E. W. Lane, the colored politician from Covington, who holds a position in the revenue service here. The Republicans seem to be relying on Castner's money to do the work for them to-day.

NEXT SATURDAY'S MEETING.

Annual Convention of Sunday School Workers of the County to Be Held in This City.

All pastors, Sunday school Superintendents, one delegate from each school in the county and the teachers of the public schools of the city and county are expected to be present at the county Sunday school convention next Saturday, Nov. 8th, at the M. E. Church, Third street. Dinner will be served at the church for all the above named persons. A cordial invitation extended to all to attend the exercises, both morning and afternoon. Good, helpful talks and splendid music. Let every Sunday school worker be there.

The committee appointed to arrange for the Sunday school convention on next Saturday, Nov. 8th, are requested to meet at the M. E. Church, Third street, Thursday, Nov. 6th, at 2 p. m. to make final arrangements for the occasion. Let all be present ready to report.

The Sunday school convention of next Saturday promises to be one of unusual interest. You should attend. Music will be one of the attractive features.

The will of the late T. J. Pickett was admitted to record Monday. It was in handwriting of deceased, and dated Oct. 3rd, 1895. After his debts and funeral expenses are paid, the rest of his estate is bequeathed to his sister, Mary O. Pickett.

A dispatch from Rev. J. J. Dickey who is at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Crain, at Carlisle, stated that she was no better. She is suffering from typhoid fever complicated with pneumonia, and the doctors have but slight hope of her recovery. She has survived longer, however, than they expected, and she says she will get well.

Miss Willie A. Simmons, teacher of one of the higher classes at the A. and M. College for negroes at Normal, Ala., died Friday morning, Oct. 24th, at that institution. The body was shipped to Nashville for interment and the funeral was conducted from the Walden University Chapel. Her sister, Miss Lugenia Simmons, of this county, her mother, and a committee of four members of the faculty accompanied the remains home. Miss Simmons was a graduate of Walden University class of '98, and was an accomplished vocalist and musician.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. A. F. Reespe came in last evening from Frankfort to vote.

—Mr. W. J. Kehoe went to Cynthiana last evening to vote. He returns here this evening.

—Miss Alice Dobyns leaves Saturday to spend the winter with relatives at Birmingham, Ala.

—Mrs. P. Tierney and daughter, Martina, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gantley, near Lewisburg.

—Mrs. James Robinson, of Florence, Ala., is expected this week to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Dobyns.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ryan and daughter, of Millersburg, have returned home from an enjoyable visit to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Corbett, of Washington.

—Mrs. Shanklin and daughter, of Mayslick, who have been visitors at William Shanklin's in Bourbon County for two weeks, have returned home.

—Miss Tillie Davis is in Louisville where she was called by the death of Mrs. Robert A. Crump, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Hoffman.

If looking for comfort don't forget Wooltex Coats are made four-ply across the chest and in the back are two-ply across the shoulders. Colors, blue, castor, tan and red. Kersey Cloth, stitched with pure silk. PRICES, $3.50 TO $15.

Don't miss the Wooltex contest. No easier way to win a handsome $15 Coat. If you haven't heard about it, come in and we will tell you.

D. HUNT & SON

THE MARSHALL WILL CASE.

Brief Summary of Evidence Introduced by Contestant—Expert Medical Testimony as to His Condition.

[Cynthiana Democrat.]

The first witness for the contestants was Mrs. M. L. Marshall. She testified to the devotion of her father and herself for each other up to the time of her marriage with Dr. Marshall; that her father had no objection to the doctor except that he could not share her affection with anyone; that after the doctor's death her father settled up the estate for her which amounted to about $16,000, and his devotion continued. She returned to Augusta and father and daughter lived together for several years in peace and comfort until the time of her mother's death in 1894, he bearing the expenses of keeping up the place, knowing that her income was not sufficient. Mrs. Blanche Young was in 1896 employed as a servant and Mr. Marshall became very fond of her. Mrs. Marshall made no charges or insinuations against Mrs. Young's character. Mr. Marshall was addicted to the use of morphine and, later, whiskey. His conduct towards his daughter became gradually more disagreeable until it culminated in violent outbursts of temper and a studied aversion to her. He purchased a dwelling house and removed there, Mrs. Marshall having gone to Maysville because she was afraid of him. He took Mrs. Young to a new home, which he purchased, as his housekeeper. Before his removal Mrs. Marshall made every effort towards reconciliation. When he became ill and was on his death bed his daughter attempted to see him, but was prevented. After his death she had the body removed to her home and buried from that place. At one time he declared that he would have a wife or mistress if he chose.

Mrs. Chenoweth of Maysville testified that Mrs. Marshall had sent for her to come to Augusta, and that in her presence Mr. Marshall, who had always before been courteous and gentlemanly, employed violent and abusive terms in denouncing his daughter. He showed Mrs. Chenoweth, however, a will which he had drawn making his daughter his sole heir, with exception of small bequests; and declared that though he disliked his daughter and wanted her to feel genuine suffering and her dependence on him, he intended that she should have his money and property after his death.

Mr. T. H. Armstrong testified to the fact that he had been approached by certain parties, who are beneficiaries under the will, with the suggestion that he cultivate Mr. Marshall, who was old and feeble, and try to get in on the will to the extent of $5,000 or more. Armstrong and Mrs. Marshall also testified to Mr. Marshall's strong opposition to public schools and to paying taxes for public improvements.

Rev. B. F. Chatham, of the Methodist Church, said that he had on occasions gone to Mr. Marshall and endeavored to reconcile him to his daughter; that even in his last illness Marshall was bitter against her. He did not consider Marshall sound in mind so far as his daughter was concerned.

Dr. J. C. Norris said Marshall told him he had employed Dr. T. S. Bradford professionally, for he had made his will and was afraid Dr. Bradford would see that the will did not stand.

Mr. Len Wittmyer, a devisee of the will, was a personal friend of Marshall from the close of the war; that the old man in 1897 advised him to have nothing to do with Mrs. Marshall for she might poison him. He also heard read the will leaving Mrs. Marshall everything except a few small bequests.

Took several messages from Mrs. Marshall to her father requesting him to return and make her home his home, and bring with him whomsoever he chose.

J. T. Jackson, Augusta merchant, met Marshall on train and he seemed in trouble. Inquired why he did not live at the Grand Hotel in Cincinnati and send his daughter the money to keep up the house. Marshall said the trouble was she had too many Presbyterians about her, and if he sent her money she would give it to them. Believed him of unsound mind as to his daughter.

A. H. Brooks, farmer and ex-Magistrate, said after the will had been probated, J. E. Thompson, editor Augusta Chronicle, had said to him that that was one time that printer's ink paid.

Daisy Clay, colored, testified that she had been family servant of Marshall during his wife's life, but removed to Cincinnati. Was sent for by Mr. Marshall, after he had removed to Front street, to become his cook. She was met at the house by Mrs. Young, who seemed in control. Evenings when she left the house Mrs. Young also left for her home. Came in from Cincinnati on a boat early one morning, and going to Marshall's house was admitted by Mrs. Young. Mrs. Young afterwards remained at the house at night.

Dr. Buck, of Cincinnati, testified that Marshall had been his patient and had acknowledged to the use of morphine for twenty years, but claimed to have quit its use some three years before his death. Dr. Buck was of the opinion that Marshall was not competent to make a will at the date of the will in contest. Dr. Beebe, who occupies the chair of mental and nervous diseases in the Ohio Medical College, from hypothetical questions put to him, did not consider Marshall capable of making a will. Dr. Sprague, of Lexington, also testified to about the same effect.

War Over the "What Is It?"

A special to the Courier-Journal from Ashland, dated Oct. 31st, says: "The County Board of Health and the physicians of Pollard, a suburb of Ashland, are at loggerheads over a contagious disease. The Board of Health pronounced the disease smallpox and ordered the town quarantined. The doctors are positive it is not smallpox and protested against the quarantine. One man whose house was quarantined threatened to bring suit, and, it is said, the flags were taken down. After days of quarreling the flags are again up, and the Board of Health threatens to place armed guards between the town and this city. While there has been an immense number of cases the disease, whatever it may be, is of a very mild type, and leaves no mark on the victim."

The Devil's Auction.

Manager Charles H. Yale announces three new grand ballets for the twenty-first edition of his "everlasting Devil's Auction." For the first act a Danse Eccecentrique, which includes "Le Danse Sensations" by Fraulein Jennie Prager and Aurelio Coccia. For the second act "The Feast of the Lanterns," the gorgeous Chinese divertissement in what is introduced the new European novelty "The Dance of the Moon." For the third act a radical departure is made from the stereotyped ballet, in "Echoes From the South," which as its title indicates savors of ragtime melody and dance. All these divertissements are produced under the able direction of Aurelio Coccia the noted maitre de ballet and male dancer. At the Washington Wednesday, Nov. 5th. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

THE CASE FORTUNE.

Snit of Claimants Again Decided Against Them—Judge Took Case From Jury.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 31.—Judge Wing of the United States Circuit Court to-day decided that the evidence in the long-fought suit against the Cleveland heirs of the Case estate was of such a nature that it could not be intelligently considered by the jury. The court, therefore, took the case from the jury and instructed them to find in favor of the defendants, known as the Cleveland heirs, who have been in possession of the estate since the death of Leonard Case.

The latter died nearly twenty years ago, leaving property in and around Cleveland worth many millions of dollars. Eastern heirs have for years sought to gain possession of the property, carrying the litigation through the various lower courts, but in each instance they were defeated.

The Christian Church Extension Society secured from the churches the past year $108,501.47, a gain of $4,850.36 over the previous year.

The funeral of John Cord, of Wedonia, took place Monday at 11 o'clock at Mill Creek Church, Rev. F. M. Tinder, of Carlele, officiating. His death occurred Saturday, after a short illness of typhoid fever.

Died, at the National Military Home, Dayton, Ohio, Hiram B. McCord, after a lingering illness, in the seventy-fourth year of his age. He was well known in Fleming and Lewis counties.

Rev. W. P. Pierce, of Indiana, will preach at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening and Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The public invited. All members urged to be present.

Rev. Mr. Shepherd, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Third street, preached Sunday to intensely interested audiences sermons as orthodox as John Knox's and as fervid as John Wesley's. The ministrations of this popular minister are proving helpful to every department of work of this congregation.

THE SETTERS SUIT.

Opinion of the Court of Appeals in This Case Against the City of Maysville.

Mention has been made of the decision of the Court of Appeals in the above suit, the ruling being in favor of the city. The Court, in its opinion, says:

"Appellant decedent was run over and killed by an electric car while walking along a street in appellee city just outside the track of the railway company and this action was instituted against the city to recover damages for her death, alleging as negligent acts of the city that it permitted piles of stones, bricks and debris as well as undergrowth to exist along the line of said railway between it and the roadway of the street, which compelled pedestrians to travel near the railway track and obstructed the view of approaching cars and that the city was in duty bound to prevent said obstructions and that the injury resulted from the neglect of the city to perform its said duty. Held—That the failure of the city to perform its duty in removing said obstructions from the street was not the immediate proximate cause of the injury and the city was not, therefore, liable for damages, but as the petition alleges that the motorman could by the exercise of reasonable diligence have discovered the deceased and prevented the injury, it states a cause of action against the railway company."

Cole & Son, Thomas R. Phister for appellant; E. L. Worthington, L. W. Galbraith, Thomas M. Wood for appellee.

By the upsetting of a carriage during a runaway near Aberdeen, Hannah and Essie Miller and Harry Morton received serious injuries.

Rev. J. B. Ginn, a former minister of the Christian Church, is seriously ill at his home in Versailles. He is about seventy-five years of age.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad has been declared the official route of the Kentucky division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for the annual convention at New Orleans November 12 to 15.

Died, Sunday, at his home near Sardis, William Cooper, aged sixty years, after a three week's illness of typhoid fever. He leaves a wife and two children. The funeral took place Monday morning with services by Rev. T. S. Buckingham, of Washington. Interment at Sardis.

Prof. J. W. McGarvey, President of the Bible College of Kentucky, Lexington, Sunday, with his wife, withdrew from the Broadway Christian Church, which he founded, because the congregation, contrary to his views, voted for installing an organ. He will transfer his membership to the Chestnut Street Church.

The Mayor reported $162.20 as amount of licenses collected for month.

The Treasurer reported $4,998.20 as amount due the school fund for month.

The Ohio River Lumber Company was refunded $4.40 taxes paid on their new plant, and the company was exempted from taxation for next five years.

The ladies of the Baptist Church were refunded $3 license, paid for an entertainment.

The following communication from F.
Stanley Watson was read:

To the Mayor and Board of Councilmen: Since my contract with you bearing date of June 2, 1902, in the matter of omitted taxes due the city of Maysville, I have not been idle in my capacity, but have caused considerable to be listed and collected. Below I have made out an itemized statement of the amounts collected and caused to be collected by my efforts, and after deducting my commission of 25 per cent, leaves a balance due the city of Maysville of $304, which I herewith hand you check for:

| Maysville Water Co..... | 1,500 00 |
| Maysville Telephone Co..... | 190 00 |
| Total..... | $6,334 02 |

The settlement of Omar Dodson and M. C. Russell estate, I received check for, the two making a total of $1,887.50. After deducting my commission on the above it leaves a balance of $304, as mentioned above.

Mayor Stallcup said Mr. Watson was mistaken as to the collection of the omitted taxes from the corporations named.
The Mayor claimed Mr. Watson had nothing to do with the collection of same, and added that he would fight his claim for commission thereon through all the courts. Mr. Keith stated that he understood that Mr. Watson claims to have furnished the information as to these taxes, and he moved that the matter be referred to the Claims and Accounts Committee for investigation. Adopted.

Permits were granted as follows: J. C.
Cabbish; to erect a one-story frame building in rear of his store on Market street.
Limestone Building Association, F. Devine agent; to erect a coal house on Fourth street, Fourth ward. Mrs. R. H.
Adams; to erect a coal shed in rear of lot in Sixth ward.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late James Purnell, member of the Board from Fifth ward, were read and unanimously adopted. A communication from Mrs. Purnell was read returning the thanks of herself and children to Council for their sympathy and kindness in her bereavement and also for the beautiful floral tribute sent by Council.

Council then proceeded to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Purnell's death.
James H. Cummings and Wm. H. Davis were nominated. The vote resulted:
Cummings 7, Davis 3, one absent. Mr.
Cummings was declared elected and was later sworn in.

The Committee on Gas reported that the company asked that the matter of a new contract be postponed until next February on account of the lateness of the season and was willing to reduce the cost of arc lights to $85 per annum in the meantime. The time was granted.

An ordinance was adopted fixing a penalty of from $2 to $5 for fast travel over the Limestone Creek bridge.

An ordinance was also adopted fixing the pay of the salary of the Mayor pro tem at $2 a day, instead of $5.

An ordinance was read increasing merchants' retail liquor license from $150 to $250. On motion of Captain J. E. Wells, the ordinance was laid on the table by a vote of six to three, Messrs. Eitel, Frost and Derech casting the votes against tabling the ordinance. An ordinance to increase the druggists' liquor license from $50 to $100, was also laid on the table.

An ordinance increasing the penalty to $50 for a minor to frequent a saloon for the purpose of obtaining liquor, or for misrepresenting his age in order to obtain liquor was read and on motion laid on the table.

An ordinance was adopted to punish prisoners from escaping for the work house or from custody. The penalty shall be ten times the fine the prisoner may be serving out.

The Ways and Means Committee was authorized to take up and pay off such bonds as may be deemed expedient with the funds on hand.

The Neptune Fire Company was advanced its salary of $400 for 1903.

Mrs. Cooper, of Lee street, was placed on pension list at rate of $5 a month.

The floor of the Mayor's office was ordered repaired.

Short street, between Second and the river, was ordered repaired.

Council then adjourned.

Arrangements have been made to build a railroad from Jackson to the Lost Creek coal fields. The road is to run from Jackson a distance of twenty-five miles, southeast, where it will enter the body of 50,000 acres of land owned by the Lost Creek Coal Co., which tract embraces 7,000 acres of mineral land, the balance being heavily timbered.
